

Gain professional work experience, build your resume, and earn credits towards graduation in Washington, D.C.!

Students spend three or four days a week at an internship and one day in class. Participants live in furnished apartments at the University of California’s 11-story building located in a lively neighborhood several blocks from the White House.

Hundreds of organizations offer internship opportunities for UC students studying communications, journalism, media, and public relations. Every member of Congress, most organizations, agency and association, has a media or communications staff.
