

GLOBAL ARTS STUDIES PROGRAM IN Washington DC

Internship sites

There is a vast field of internships for Global Arts Studies Program students. Some of these internships include

- Media - CBS
- Dance USA
- Theatre - Kennedy Center

Classes to take

More info on classes link: UCDC Courses

- General Research
- International Policy
- U.S. Supreme Court
- Washington Media
- Congress and Politics in Washington
- American Political Journalism
- Campaigns and Elections
- Lobbying Money & Influence in DC
- Politics & Poems (Spring semester)

Things to do

- Field-trip to Congress
- Attend a Monday Night Forum
- Visit New York, Boston, Gettysburg, Philadelphia
- Network with high officials
- Tour embassies in D.C.
- "Get coffee" with D.C. professionals
- Tour graduate and law schools

Contact your advisor

Be sure to contact your advisor for any questions you may have. A good resource is the following link:

<http://ssha-advising.ucmerced.edu/>

Welcome to UCDC

The Global Arts Studies Program (GASP) is a unique curriculum that integrates diverse subjects normally housed in different departments, including art history, visual studies, ethnomusicology, performance studies and cultural studies.

<https://gasp.ucmerced.edu/>